Every year the Board of Education does much for the high school. Some of the things which the Board was able to provide this year were, the clocks for the halls, additional lockers and desks, and cupboards for the dishes which the Parent-Teachers Association gave for use in the cafeteria. It has also made many improvements on the campus. The lawn was graded and seeded and several large trees were set out. With the assistance of the C. W. A. and the TERA the athletic field was enlarged and a drainage system was installed. For the first time the high school has an art department. This was added by the Board and Mr. Batchellor was engaged as the art instructor.

For several months, Mr. Quirk, President of the Board, was prevented from taking an active part in the affairs of the Board due to serious injuries received in an automobile accident.

The two new members on the Board are Mr. Erwin and Mr. Barnes.

Standing: Green, Babcock, Quirk, Batchellor, Olmsted, Porter. Seated: Higgins, O'Donnell, Davis, Filer, Doty, Mills, Gormley.

APPRECIATION

MARION M. OLMSTED

Miss Olmsted has been the faculty adviser to the class of '34 for the three years that she has been a member of the faculty. It was through her efforts that the enterprises undertaken to raise money for the Washington trip were made successful.

Miss Olmsted has helped us not only in our plans for the Washington trip but also in our graduation activities and has been a helpful guide in all of our decisions. The class of '34 take this opportunity to extend to her their sincere appreciation of her untiring efforts.

CLASS PROPHECY

The twenty-five years which have gone since the Class of 1934 graduated from Geneseo High have made many changes.

James Wright, for example, has honored the educational field with a volume on "How to Maintain Discipline," the material for which was gathered while he was Dean of the Geneseo Normal School.

Evelyn Cole is Dodging around Avon.

Bill Totten has taken the well-known "Joe Brown's" place on the screen.

Virginia Scott has purchased a controlling interest in the magazine "Ballyhoo."

Bill Slight is selling ads for the "Ballyhoo."

Martha Countryman and James Culley have collaborated on the volume "How to Reduce," the first copy of which was presented to Angie Bondi.

Esther Campbell and George Hewitt are working on the "Drama of Life." It is a tragedy.

Frank Rumfelt and David Finley have completed a new plane, which is expected to revolutionize flying. They hope to rescue Leo Parent, who is still up in the air about his High School English assignments.

Winnie Smith is learning to operate elevators at the Hamilton Hotel.

Ben Muirhead is still taking physics.

Genevieve Delebart, while not taking Amos 'n' Andy's place, is advertising for Pepsodent.

James Wheeler is the best butcher in town.

Jane Simmons and Jack Wilhelm are taking a trip to Washington.

All hub-caps, fenders and telephone poles are once more safe, for Norma McLaughlin and Sarah Palermo have just learned to navigate "Model A's."

Truant-officer Edward Mills and Cis are living on Elm Street.

Edward Roberts and Joe McIntyre are manufacturing a freckle removing cream.

Dick Mills has gone into partnership with Eddie Cantor, trying to make wise-cracks.

Tony Valvo is playing "Romeo" in Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. Frances Buchanan is playing "Juliet."

Wilma Nicholas says that she still likes anything with a collar on it.

Mr. Gormley still says that one of the chief causes of dust is the Janitor.

Dr. Barbara Barnes, in a recent health talk, said that in case of asphyxiation, artificial respiration should be applied until the person is dead.

Lucia Raub says that chivalry is the attitude of a man toward a strange woman.

Isabel Sinclair says that heredity is a bad thing, and that it ought to be stopped.

Miss Green says that "Hors de combat" means "war horse."

So, as it may be seen from the above, the situations of the members of the Class of '34 have changed somewhat, but we humbly offer the following to prove that in mind and spirit they are the same:

We tip-toed up in back of Gertrude Barkley, who was scribbling on a sheet of paper. Closer inspection of the paper disclosed that the following poem had been the object of her labor:

As I was laying on the green
A small English book I seen
Carlyle's essay on Burns was the edition
So I left it lay in the same position.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1934 of Geneseo High School, in the County of Livingston and State of New York, being of sound mind and memory, do make and declare this our last will and testament.

To Mr. Gormley, our Principal—we leave the Boys' Glee Club hoping that by next year he will bring it to perfection.

To the Juniors—we leave the hard task of persuading the school board to allow them to go to Washington; also a copy of the 1934 Jen-O-See so that in later life they may gaze upon portraits of renowned people.

To Helen Slaight and Grace Culbertson—Leo Parent's and Edward Robert's method of studying together without getting caught.

To William Rowerdink—Dick Mills' self-respect.

To Charles Magee—Douglass Miller's "business."

To William Dwyer—Virginia Scott's French accent.

To Tony Pecora—Wendell Densmore leaves his match stick.

To Ruth Ritter—Marybel Dwyer leaves the affections of Kenyon Clark.

To Douglas McCaughey—Tony Valvo's ability as an athlete.

To Ralph Rumfelt—William Slaight's technique with women.

To Mary O'Mara—Eugenia Nye's bashfulness to speak in front of a class.

To Dorothy Scott—Angie Bondi's "Dirt Collecting."

To Paul Reynolds—Lynn Robert's curling irons and combs.

To the Sophomore Girls—that man, Stirling Jones.

To all the boys in the Junior Class—William Totten's and Benjamin Muirhead's noise.

To Mr. Doty—A good week's sleep to make up for that lost while in Washington.

To Mr. Higgins—a pair of suspenders.

To Mr. Babcock—a Mexican sombrero.

To Miss Filer—a new Chevrolet.

To Miss Green—A few insurance policies.

To Mrs. O'Donnell—Sir Malcolm Campbell's speed record.

To Jack Spratt—Jimmy Cully's seat and cigar in front of the elevator in the Hamilton Hotel.

To George Hewitt—Jimmy Wright's iron constitution.

To Charlotte West and Edward Servis—Agnes Van Cise's and Walter Buchanan's umbrella for rainy days.

To John Dwyer—All the girls in the Senior Class.

To Constance Collins—Martha Countryman's flashy sweater.

To Phyllis McMordie—Norma McLaughlin's art of hairdressing.

To Miss Brown—A few more years in Washington as chaperone on Easter trips.

Lastly, we appoint Fred A. Quirk, now residing in the town of Geneseo, sole executor of our last Will and Testament knowing that his interest in Geneseo High will not let him neglect his duty in the matter.

JUNIOR CLASS

Juniors! At last we have climbed another step in our high school career. So far we have maintained as high standards as any previous class, and we are gradually striving to surpass former classes.

In the various activities during the school year, facts show that we excel in individuality and ability. Juniors throng the Glee Club, the French and Latin Clubs, Orchestra and Band. The athletic teams are composed, to a large extent, of Juniors. Three of the five on the varsity basketball team are Juniors.

The officers of the class of '35 are: President, Douglas McCaughey; Secretary, Ann Minckler; Treasurer, Robert Wade; Class Adviser, Mrs. O'Donnell. Edward Roberts was President until January when he became a Senior.

Next year, as Seniors, we hope for greater laurels than have already been attained by our former efforts.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

On goes time and with it our history. Triumphantly, we, the class of 1936, are nearing the era in our student life when we are no longer looked down upon as underclassmen. While we eagerly look forward to the coming years of our student life, we look back with pleasure on our past record!

In the field of athletics, the Sophomore class has shown its ability to do worthy work. We went into the interclass basketball meets with grim determination, but the experience of the Seniors was too much for us, and although our boys put up a fight, success was not to be ours. In the Band, Orchestra, and Glee Club we have made a very creditable showing, and we are ably represented in the Student Council.

Thus far our class has been fairly successful and our hopes are bright for the future. We expect to increase our prominence in the history of Geneseo High School and to contribute considerably to its welfare. If we can accomplish even a little in these directions, we shall be still more justifiably proud of the class of '36.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Here we are, the class of 1937, full of ideas and ambitions, just raring to go. Our highest aim is to do the best we can through our four high school years in order to get every thing possible from our classes and activities. When the first shyness had worn off we entered immediately into all the activities. We are well represented in the band, orchestra, and glee club, and are very active in all the sports. The first wonders of high school lessened and we settled down to steady work, inspired on by the beauties of our new building. We are very proud of our Alma Mater and strive to uphold her traditions so that when we are Seniors we can look back without regret upon our Freshman year.

PURPOSE—The function of the student Council is to unite all student organizations under one control in order to aid in the internal administration of the school and foster sentiment of law and order. It aims to promote the general activity of the school, and in all cases to promote the best interests and ideals of the school. Lastly it endeavors to develop in the student a growing appreciation of membership in a democracy by providing the educative responsibilities and privileges of participating in such a democracy in the school.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS—The Council during this first year of its organization has accomplished many of its aims. Conflicts between the activities of the different organizations have been prevented. The marching of the student body into the assembly is regulated by the Council. It has promoted many extra activities including dances which were given in the gymnasium.

The 1934 JEN-O-SEE staff has economized!

This year the JEN-O-SEE staff has edited the JEN-O-SEE annual with two purposes, first, to reduce the price of the annual from $2.00 to $1.00, and second, to publish a book equal to the $2.00 one. The members of the staff feel that their efforts have been rewarded. They have worked tirelessly and are very happy with the results of their work. Although the cover of the annual is entirely different than heretofore, the book has lost none of its beauty. Much credit for the success of the book is due to Mr. Davis who helped us so efficiently and showed us how to publish a successful year book.

The staff wishes to show their appreciation to those members of the Geneseo High School, who were not appointed to the staff, but who have contributed to the success of this publication.

The Senior play, "The Commuters," under the able direction of Elbert Foland, was a huge success, both financially and dramatically.

In spite of the hustle and bustle of making up and rushing around in the dressing rooms, the cast showed complete assurance on the stage. The moment the curtain arose the young actors forgot their own identity and became other characters. Every person played his part in an excellent manner.

The play centered around Larry and Hetty Brice who were having their marital bliss blighted by a playboy from the city, Sammy Fletcher.

The proceeds of the play added extensively to the money used for the Washington trip.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club personnel comprises all pupils in second and third year French and those who have completed the French course. The purpose of the club has been to give each pupil an opportunity to become more familiar with spoken French, thereby enlarging his vocabulary and acquainting himself with the correct use of French idioms.

The officers are: President, Rose Jerris; Vice-President, Edward Servis; Secretary, Martha Countryman; Treasurer, William Dwyer.

BAND

The band has appeared in public on several occasions this year. It has put an added bit of enthusiasm into the football and basketball games. It has delighted the student body when it has appeared in the chapel exercises. With the extra classes for band during school hours the members have been able to practice and develop their musical talent.

Mr. Babcock began the year by getting new members. These members have been very faithful in their practice and will be rewarded by being able to come into the band as regular members next fall.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra has developed considerably during the past year. It has had more opportunity this year to show its musical ability than in any previous year. It has played for most of the assembly programs.

At different times during the year when special programs were being presented, which needed a little music to top them off, Mr. Babcock selected certain members of the orchestra to play.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

This year the Girls' Glee Club has been directed very successfully under the direction of our new music director, Mr. Babcock.

The most outstanding accomplishment this year was the production of the operetta, "The Riddle of Isis." The cast consisted of members of the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs. The leading characters, Anita Wheeler and Lynn Roberts, were assisted by Betty Northrup, William Totten, Angie Bondi, Wilbur Dennis. A violin solo was played by Evelyn Quirk accompanied by a vocal selection by Angie Bondi and Lucia Raub.

Geneseo High School presented "Circumstances Alter Cases"

The play was successfully coached by Miss Quirk and Mrs. O'Donnell. William Saunders and Leo Parent were stage managers.

Sitting: Eugene Smith, Betty Northrup, Gertrude Barkley, Peggy Ward, Harold Burns. Standing: Leo Parent, Mrs. O'Donnell, William Saunders, Miss Quirk.

INTER-SCHOOL PLAY

This year a new idea was successfully completed in our High School. Plays were presented in Mt. Morris, Geneseo, and Greigsville to create an interest in dramatics and to promote a feeling of friendliness and cooperation among these schools. Great interest and skill has been shown by the students in this competition.

SECOND TEAM GAMES

The Geneseo High School Football team completed its eight game schedule with a record far greater than that of any Geneseo Football team in the past four years. Under the able direction of Coach Higgins a team was formed of veterans and a few recruits that the Geneseo High School can well be proud. For a lightweight team our boys had a remarkable record. Their strong offensive power can best be illustrated by figures showing that they scored 101 points while their opposition scored only 71 against them. It is with pride that we refer to the game with Greigsville. This victory is the first in five years. This victory alone would have made the season a success.

There never has been such keen competition for the basketball championship of Livingston County as during the past season. In both class A and B, the teams were so evenly matched that the regular season ended with a tie.

The Geneseo High School Basketball Team under the supervision of Coach Higgins completed the season in a tie for first place in class A. In the playoff our team lost by one point, a clean hard-fought game. In spite of the fact that the actual score left our boys behind in the race for the Championship, nevertheless that deserved "a big hand" for the way they played throughout the season.

This year the Geneseo High School Baseball team has high hopes of being one of the chief competitors for the Livingston County Baseball championship. This year's team has all but one of last years players and has many valuable additions. With this abundance of material, Mr. Higgins may well expect a first-class team to represent the Geneseo High School.

TRACK

SCHEDULE FOR 1934

May 12		at Caledonia
May 19		at Lima
May 26		County meet at Dansville
June 2		Intersectional meet at Rochester

The Track Team like the Baseball Team consists chiefly of last years members. Many more meets have been scheduled this year than in former years, and for the first time the student body has shown some interest in the Track Team. With this added encouragement the track men will undoubtedly bring many honors home to the school.

CHEER-LEADERS

Before each football, basketball and baseball game, the student body was awakened from its drowsiness by the cries of "Come on, lets go" of the cheer-leaders. The student body responded with such cheers as, "Blue and White, Blue and White, Geneseo, Fight, Fight, Fight," or "Yea Geneseo, Rah, Rah, Rah!"

The cheer-leaders, who so skillfully guided the cheering, which is always a great help to the players, were Ruth Ritter, Ann Minckler, Norma McLaughlin and William Totten, with Angie Bondi as song leader. The work of these leaders was made more effective this year by their new uniforms.

INTER-CLASS BASKETBALL

SENIOR GIRLS

The Senior Girls Basketball Team, due to their experience and superior playing ability, easily captured the Girls Interclass Championship.

SOPHOMORE GIRLS

The Sophomore Girls Basketball Team was second in the Girls division by virtue of a victory over the Junior team, its nearest rival.

FRESHMAN BOYS

The Freshman Boys Basketball Team displayed remarkable cooperation and teamwork for a first-year team in winning the Boys Interclass Championship.

SENIOR BOYS

The Senior Boys Basketball Team by decisive victories over both the Sophomore and Junior Teams, came a close second in the race for Championship.
